

Dr Florence G'sell

Florence G'sell is a Visiting Professor at Stanford University (Freeman Spogli Institute), where she leads the Program on Governance of Emerging Technologies. She is a Professor of Private Law at the University of Lorraine (currently on leave), a fellow at the AI and Society Institute (ENS-PSL) and a research affiliate at the Centre for Digital Law (Singapore Management University). From 2019 to 2025, she led the Digital Governance and Sovereignty Chair at Sciences Po (Paris). Her recent publications include Regulating under Uncertainty. Governance Options for Generative AI (Stanford Cyber Policy Center, 2024); Statutory Obsolescence in the Age of Innovation: a Few Thoughts about GDPR (Network Law Review, September 2025) and Balancing Code and Law: Governance and Policy Challenges of Blockchain (forthcoming). Professor G'sell graduated from Sciences Po, is admitted to the Paris Bar, holds a PhD in Private Law from the University of Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne, and holds the French agrégation in Private Law and Criminal Sciences.

➤ The AI & Society Institute